Chapter 1 by Bryson Dunsmore

I woke up, heavily breathing, with a sick feeling in my stomach. I was so confused and scared. I gazed around my room, thinking that it was all as it had been, but then I saw a little hole in the wall. "Oh, no," I thought to myself. Though I was having an awful feeling about the hole, I got up to investigate it. As I approached, though, it appeared the hole had a black liquid seeping out of it. As soon as I saw that, I jumped back as fast as I could. My mind started racing with scary thoughts until I remembered my nightmare from a few nights ago. I remembered a black hole in a wall, and then...well, it all just went downhill from there, to say the least.
